Who hears the prayers and sees the needs of all that He has made

In years gone by the seasons shaped the range of foods that we could choose

Now all year round the shelves are full with all the usual produce

From weary hands, from far flung lands - we have all that we want

Our Provider God

Let Your Kingdom come

Verse 3:

Forgive us Lord for deadened hearts which fail to recognise Your hand

That through convenience and ease do not appreciate the land

Or pay our dues to those who toil to bring us food to eat

Verse 4:

Awaken us to play our part and make a difference through our deeds

Defined by justice in our ways resisting ignorance and greed

Aware of all that we consume, beyond what we require

Chorus:

Verse 5:

Renew in us a sense of awe at the provision that you give

Offend our self sufficient ways that we will learn to humbly live

Eyes open wide, hands full of grace, to serve a world in need
